About Me

I am enthusiastic and very passionate about Financial Management. I have experience in various internal and external organizations on campus and in boarding schools, which equipped me with ability to lead a team and demonstrate good leadership and interpersonal communication. In addition, I have experience in analyzing data specifically in the financial field with corresponds to my thesis on stock market analysis and I can use various tools and programming languages such as SQL, Python, Tableau, and Excel wich allows me to provide valuable insights to stakeholders. I have an interest in Data Analytics, HR Analytics, and Business Analytics, and I can work collaboratively in a team and adapt well to rigor and hard work. I am ready to contribute to the company.
