ABOUT ME

Hi, I'm Kiral! I am a sociable person, dare to take the risk and want to work hard toward expertise. I have worked on a data analytics project, starting with defining the problem, collecting and analyzing data and ending with presenting it to others. I learned how to manage the project and make decisions toward the discussions. I am also proficient in Excel, SQL, Python, Tableau and as well as have good analytical thinking. With the skill and experience mentioned, I believe I can provide good recommendations to solve the problem.
